InterContinental Resorts & Spas French Polynesia

have been internationally awarded among the top 20 hotels in the South Pacific and number 1 on the islands of Tahiti, Moorea and Bora Bora.

World's prestigious media such as Conde Nast Travellers, Spa Finder, Travel + Leisure, Islands Magazine, Modern Bride, Elle and many more, have placed InterContinental Resorts & Spas French Polynesia as the "most recognized hotels in French Polynesia" with more than 20 recognitions given through the last years.

YOUR DREAM CAN COME TRUE

TAHITI

Just the word itself conjures up images of palm trees, the warm scent of flowers, black eyes beauties in swaying grass skirts and breathtaking turquoise lagoons lapping on white sand beaches. For hundreds of years, explorers in their sailing ships brought back tales of a “paradise on earth” where the visual blended with the sensual to create a Garden of Eden in the South Seas.

We may be in the 21st century, but the essence of Tahiti and her Islands has not changed – the exquisite contrast between the green high mountains and the languid turquoise lagoons whose colours change constantly – the scent of the frangipani mingling with the laughter of the people.

Each of the archipelagos that make up Tahiti and her Islands are unique and distinct as are each of the islands within those archipelagos – high green clad mountains surrounded by turquoise lagoons such as Moorea or Bora Bora or massive low coral atolls such as Fakarava or Rangiroa and, of course, the mystical magical Marquesas.

With our knowledge and insight, let us create the perfect itinerary for your journey to “PARADISE”

SOCIETY ISLANDS

PEARL RATING

- World-class resort with luxury accommodation, top of the line amenities and excellent location
- International-standard resort combining excellent facilities and well appointed accommodation
- Comfortable accommodation with good facilities
- Clean and comfortable accommodation with limited facilities Good value for the cost conscious traveler

TAHITI

Often overlooked by visitors, the island of Tahiti where the International airport is located is well worth 3 or 4 days of your time.

Papeete, the bustling capital of Tahiti has a very distinctive French flair with its bustling waterfront, crowded streets lined with shops offering French fashions, shell jewelry and local handicrafts.

Restaurants and side-walk cafes tucked away in the mostly unlikely of places offer a unique blend of French, Polynesian, Indian and Asian fare. If you have thought about buying a Black Pearl during your stay in the Islands, you should plan to visit the Pearl Museum located in the Vaima Center. This is the only museum in the world devoted entirely to pearls – learn what to look for when you shop for a pearl. A visit to the 53 year old Le Marche Market with its profusion of Tahitian-made crafts, fruits, vegetables and flowers is an absolute must as are the local roulettes or food wagons that dot the waterfront once the sun slips below the horizon.

To see a different side of Tahiti, drive yourself or take an organized tour around the island – watch the scenery change very quickly from a busy city to foothills dressed with coconut palms to high mountain pinnacles and raging waterfalls. Take time to visit the Museum of Tahiti and Her Islands for a better understanding of Polynesian culture and history or the Paul Gauguin Museum located on the bottom side of the island.

Don't miss this busy and very diverse island!

MOOREA

A mere 12 miles across the Sea of the Moon from Tahiti, the pace of life in Moorea is much slower. A lazy barefoot existence prevails, causing some to proclaim it the “perfect South Seas Island”. This carefree lifestyle the coral reefs and cascading waterfalls have served as an inspiration to countless artists, writers and poets who have been drawn by its natural environment.

Moorea is an easy island to explore by car as the road runs completely around the island offering you peaks at towering mountains and secluded bays. The majority of the resorts and hotels are located on the top half of the island spreading from the Ferry Terminal to the Tiki Village. A tour up into the mountains is a must if only to get pictures of the panoramic vista spread out before you.

The lagoon surrounding most of Moorea reveals itself in a stunning array of turquoise interspersed with white sand and set against a backdrop of lush green mountains. The sea life in the lagoon is abundant and colorful – keep your eyes open for dolphins, whales and turtles and don’t miss the opportunity to swim the rays.

LES TIPANIERS ●●●+

Les Tipaniers is a small and very Polynesian property located alongside a picturesque beach on the west coast of Moorea. Surrounded by coconut palms and tropical flowers, the 22 Polynesian style bungalows are cooled by ceiling fans and have private bathrooms, telephone, private terrace and many have kitchens

The hotel's large motorized outrigger canoe makes regular lagoon trips and there is a scuba diving and activities on site. The beach restaurant has an excellent menu and good wine selection – this is one of the restaurants favored by the locals.

Les Tipaniers is a great choice for guests looking for a "barefoot" traditional Polynesian property.

BORA BORA

Undoubtedly the most famous island in Polynesia, Bora Bora is surprisingly small. But what this tiny gem lacks in size, it makes up for in beauty. Approach from the air or the sea and you are greeted with a captivating vision...a coral reef dotted with emerald islets encircling the main island like a string of pearls.

Romantics from around the world have laid claim to this island where the castle-like Mount Otemanu pierces the sky. Lush tropical slopes and valleys blossom with hibiscus, while palm-covered motu circle the illuminated lagoon. Perfect white sand beaches give way to emerald waters where colored fish inhabit the coral gardens.

Life here is casual, relaxing and blissful – a place of dramatic beauty, warm waters and gentle climate. Bora Bora is an enchanting island which bestows upon visitors a sense of peace – a special gift to take home.

Huahine and Taha'a

HUAHINE

The least visited of the Society Islands, Huahine is considered to be the cradle of ancient Polynesian culture. Lush with vanilla plantations, banana groves and taro fields, Huahine is actually two islands basking in one lagoon. With some of the most hospitable people in the Pacific, Huahine is a tranquil paradise which retains the best of old Polynesia.

TE TIARE BEACH RESORT ●●●●●

This lovely resort is only accessible by launch from the main village of Fare and provides absolute privacy for its guests.

The 16 overwater bungalows, 6 beach bungalows and 19 garden bungalows have large sun decks, air-conditioning, mini-bar, refrigerator and tea / coffee making facilities. The resort features an overwater bar and restaurant, boutique and fresh water swimming pool.

From $232
per person, per night

TAHA'A

Although the islands of Raiatea and Taha'a share the same lagoon the 2 islands are very different. The ancient cultural, religious and royal heart of Polynesia, Raiatea was, according to legend, the birthplace of the Gods. There are many fine examples of ancient temples (marae) to be found on this the largest of the Society Islands.

Taha'a although much smaller than Raiatea, is well known for its Vanilla Plantations – the perfume of which lingers in the air. While fishing and farming are the islanders main livelihood, what draws visits are its pretty beaches, coral gardens and the sandy Motus which pepper the lagoon.

RAIATEA LODGE ●●●

This small colonial style property is located about 5 minutes from the airport and 10 minutes by car from the main town of Uturoa. The tastefully decorated lobby and reception area with its homey plantation feel opens directly onto the front gardens and swimming pool.

All 15 rooms are comfortable and spacious with ceiling fans and air-conditioning, small fridge, hair dryer, safe and a large terrace overlooking the lagoon.

The Raiatea Lodge is a great base from which to explore the lovely island of Taha'a.

From $119
per person, per night

LE TAHA'A ISLAND RESORT AND SPA ●●●●●

This traditional Polynesian style resort is 5 minutes by boat from the main Island of Taha'a and 35 minutes by boat from Raiatea.

It offers 12 beach villas and 48 overwater suites all air-conditioned and with top of the line amenities you would expect from a first class resort.

From its high prow shaped reception area to the decks of the dining room which are located in the trees, Le Taha'a Island Resort offers guests an absolutely stunning and private hideaway for that very special occasion.

Tuamotu Islands - Manihi and Tikehau

MANIHI

Manihi is an atoll in the Tuamotu Archipelago northeast of Tahiti - a 1 hour and 10 minute direct flight from Papeete. Its clear lagoon which is 3 miles wide by 19 miles long has a deep navigable pass through the reef and shelters numerous black pearl farms.

The island offers fabulous diving and snorkeling for beginners or for those who are more experienced – with lagoon water hovering around 25°C, the sea life is abundant including turtles, manta rays, hundreds of tropical fish and dolphins.

Manihi is a perfect choice for guests wanting to experience a more traditional French Polynesia and who want utter peace and quiet.

MANIHI PEARL BEACH RESORT ●●●●

The Manihi Pearl Beach Resort is an example of tasteful, traditional Polynesian architecture using local precious wood, bamboo, shells, pandanus and palm tree fronds.

The 14 overwater and 5 premium overwater bungalows have spacious sun decks over the lagoon and each has glass tables embedded in the floor to bathe your bungalow in soft and undulating light. The 22 beach bungalows situated along the palm fringed beachfront give direct access to the lagoon. All bungalows are equipped with telephones, hair dryers, mini-bars, fans, in-room safes and coffee / tea facilities.

From $199

TIKEHAU PEARL BEACH RESORT ●●●●

Since 2001, the Tikehau Pearl Beach Resort has been welcoming guests to their little slice of paradise. Located on a beautiful motu in the Tikehau lagoon, the resort offers 8 overwater suites, 16 overwater bungalows and 13 beach bungalows.

The spacious Polynesian style bungalows have a verandah and are equipped with all the modern facilities including ceiling fan, mini-bar and television.

Despite the fact the resort has stunning beaches, you will also find a swimming pool beside the restaurant and bar on the beach.

From $293
per person, per night

TIKEHAU

Tikehau, a graceful oval crown of pink-sand beaches can only be described as a picture postcard.

Considered to be one of the most beautiful atolls in Polynesia, the fragrance in the air is matched only by the abundance of life in the bright blue water. In this pristine world, fish seem to outnumber people one-billion-to one. In fact the density of fish in the lagoon is so high that Jacques Cousteau's research group declared that Tikehau's lagoon contained the highest concentration of fish in the Tuamotu atolls.

Tahiti Cruises

The M / S Paul Gauguin was designed specifically to sail the shallow seas of Tahiti and French Polynesia, visiting small ports that larger ships can't reach and effortlessly blending into the stunning natural beauty of the South Seas. She offers an extension of the informal, relaxing environment of the islands, coupled with five-star service, comfort and luxury.

Spacious suites and staterooms (more than 70% with private balconies), an onboard water sports marina, a choice of three open-seating dining venues and an extensive spa are among her luxurious attributes. The atmosphere aboard ship radiates warmth, informality, and Polynesian flair.

ARANUI III

Freighter to Paradise

Yes, the Aranui III is first and foremost a freighter designed to service the remote Marquesas Islands. But that is not all it is – it is a specially designed state of the art ship offering tasteful and spacious suite accommodation to guests who wish to experience a cruise like no other.

You'll board the ship in Tahiti and sail almost 1,200 kilometers to the most spectacular and remote islands in French Polynesia. The Marquesas' 6 inhabited islands are so remote that the Aranui III is their lifeline to the outside world, bringing supplies and picking up copra, dried coconut and noni fruit. You will make 14 stops which gives you plenty of to explore. Little has changed in these untouched islands which have few roads or cars and visitors are very rare and very welcome.

While at sea you can swim in the small pool, exercise in the gym or learn about the rich Marquesan culture and history from the on board experts.

In Tahiti, “dancefloor” takes on new meaning.

There’s a point during your Tahiti vacation when you realize things are unlike anything else you’ve ever experienced. For many, it happens the moment they step on board an airline rated by travellers just like you as Best in the Pacific, six years running. Be moved by Tahiti. Be moved by Air Tahiti Nui. www.airtahitinui-usa.com
